AN UNEXPECTED HERO

ONE

Hi! My name is Piccolo, but I'm also known as
POW POW PIG.

I live in the year 2050, and the

WORLD IS IN TROUBLE.

Things weren't always like this. The world used to be an ★ awesome ★ place full of happy animals.

But in 2030, a TERRIBLE THING happened... the rich animals of the world voted to STOP HELPING THE POOR.

After the vote, rich animals became even richer. They showed off their houses...

And their

cars...

They bought GIANT TVs, fridges and furniture. More stuff than they could fit in their homes.

They threw out truckloads of stuff to make way for new things.

But instead of sharing with the poor,
the rich animals threw everything in the bin, creating

ENORMOUS PILES OF WASTE.

All of this didn't make the rich animals any happier. In fact, they started fighting each other. Fighting about who had the most money...

And who got the best parking space.

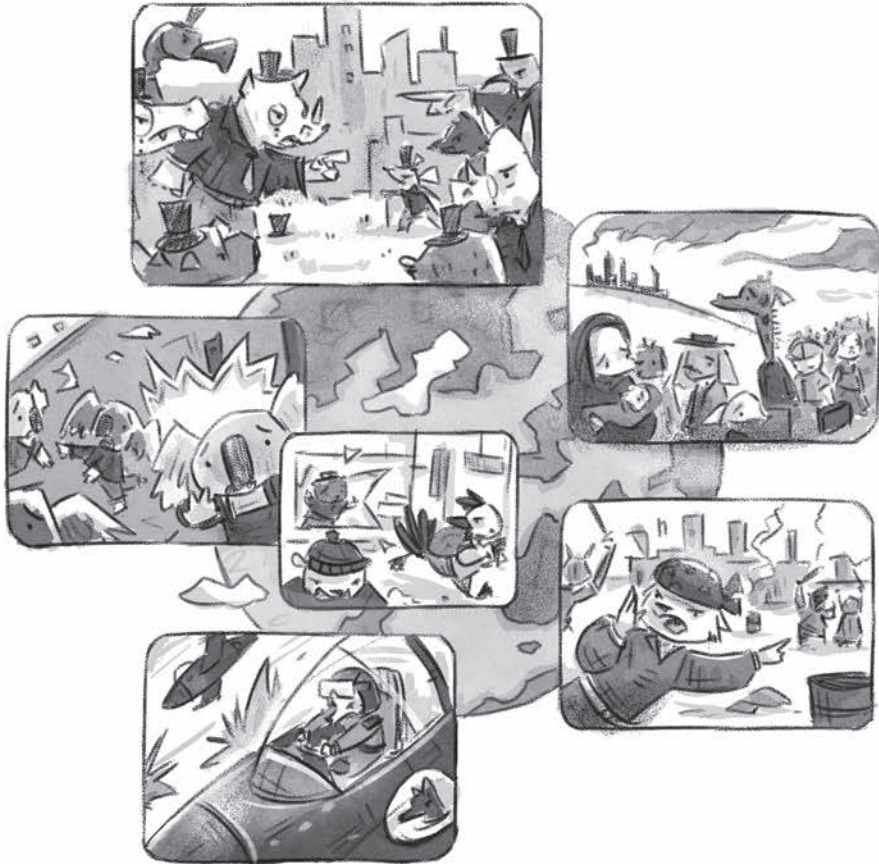

Over the years, all these small fights turned into BIG fights... and these big fights turned into wars, lots of wars, RAGING ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Meanwhile, the poorest animals had to scavenge just to eat, and things got so bad that they began fighting each other for scraps.

Our beautiful world, once such a wonderful place, started to fall apart.

But... it's not all bad...

There's still HOPE that everything can be turned around. There are still good animals in the world. Animals like my mum and dad.

They are scientists who work on cures for animal diseases.

Last year they found the cure for Chicken Pox. And just last month, they got rid of Mad Cow Disease!

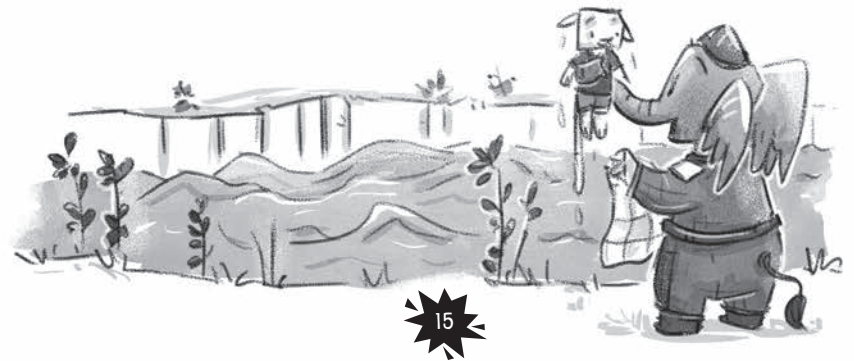

My parents are kind, caring pigs. Ever since I was a tiny piglet, they taught me to ALWAYS HELP OTHERS.

My parents are the reason I wanted to join CHOC.

CHOC stands for Creatures Helping Other Creatures. It was created by a bunch of animals who want to make the world a better place.

It used to be called 'Protection Of Others', or POO...hahahaha!
I like the new name much better.

CHOC's motto is:

They are experts in helping animals in trouble. From small acts of kindness...

... to full-on rescue operations.

CHOC animals have the skills to TREAT THE SICK...

And to REBUILD after natural disasters,
like earthquakes or hurricanes...

They also have the skills to protect and DEFEND animals from evil forces.

I applied to join CHOC as soon as I was old enough!

And now, after three years of training, it was finally time for my CHOC GRADUATION CEREMONY! Soon, I'd find out which CHOC team I was in!

The best graduates are in the A team. The next best are in the B team... all the way down to the Z team.

I really hoped I wasn't in the Z team.

I was more nervous than the time the elastic broke in my swimming shorts.

But I tried to stay positive. I didn't want to let my parents down.
